The Tontrio, founded in 2006, at the Hochschule für Musik, Karlsruhe, plays repertoire from classical to contemporary music. They will soon perform in a concert for upcoming musicians "Musikalischer Nachwuchs stellt sich vor" in the State Parliament in Mainz. Since 2009 they have been studying with the Alban Berg Quartett at Cologne University of Music, with Dirk Mommertz and Vladimir Mendelssohn at the Folkwang Hochschule, Essen. They have played in masterclasses with the renowned Fauré Quartet and musicologist Prof. Dr. Elmar Budde, been coached by Prof. Angelika Merkle, Prof. Dr. h.c. Fany Solter and Prof. Martin Ostertag. In spring 2008 the Trio was admitted into the association "Live Music Now", founded by Yehudi Menuhin. This year it also received a promotion from the "Villa Musica" foundation in Rhineland-Palatinate.
